

Would you like to hire College Students as Part-time, or Full-time employees, or Interns, at your Organization?

Some of your area colleges have great news for you!

Students, staff and community members have easy and free access to your full or part-time jobs, internships, volunteer work, or work study activities!

Check out this website hosted by 4 of your area community and technical colleges.

<http://www.collegestudents4hire.com>

- Employers can post full-time, part-time, and seasonal positions in addition to internships, volunteer, and work study positions without cost
- Postings are then shared with several local colleges and their students, faculty, and community members.
- Employers can register for college job fairs and hiring events through collegestudents4hire.com. It makes connecting easy!
- Employers can copy previously posted jobs, simply updating changed information = less time spent in recruitment. The website keeps your company profile and history intact.
- College staff are available to answer questions about Collegestudents4hire.com including technical support.

Get started by completing your company profile and uploading your opportunities today!