

Janaki Severy

Janaki Severy is a dynamic, high-energy professional with excellent communication skills. She quickly gains the trust of her clients through her sincere commitment, useful best practices and enjoyable fast paced interactive training style. She is a master trainer, coach and speaker working on numerous communications skills projects with IPS over the years. She has devoted her career to understanding the complex nature of human behavior. She also teaches organizational development and coaching across organizations and conducts national seminars on Emotional Intelligence for individuals and organizations.

Education, Professional Training, Affiliations:

- M. Ed. Career Counseling, University of Arizona
- M. Ed. Spec. Ed., Universities of Washington and Arizona
- B.A. Drama/Psycho Drama/Education, University of Washington
- DISC profiling
- EQ Map and Training (National Speaker)

If you have a strong desire to become a champion communicator and a more effective supervisory, then this workshop is for you!