

Dr. John Inman

Dr. John Inman has an extensive background in leadership development, helping organizational leaders deliver excellence to all stakeholders. He does this by providing conversational strategies for leaders that engage the full creativity and passion of every team member in the organization. Dr. Inman believes that leaders hold the key to transforming employees' performance and lives. He is dedicated to helping leaders learn to hold respectful conversations that foster cultures of engagement and innovation, where each team member can build on their gifts and realize their potential. He has participated in the launch and development of well over 300 teams in the last 10 years and has observed firsthand the leadership attributes necessary to create high performance teams. He focuses on developing the leadership mindsets necessary to thrive in complexity and does so in all organization functions and in any industry.
