

Ben Morley

As a Lean Consultant, Ben has over 30 years of experience and led thousands to achieve their desired goals. In these fast-changing times, Ben shows teams how to establish a solid orientation in their situation, provide effective clarity for their actions, and generate impactful results across countless scenarios.

Ben has been a course instructor for Impact Washington, the state's Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP) representative, dedicated to helping manufacturing companies thrive.

Education, Professional Training, Affiliations:

- BS in Human Factors Engineering from the US Air Force Academy
- Retired Air Force pilot
- SSDSI certified trainer with International Association of Six Sigma Definition.

Experience:

Ben provides comprehensive training programs and workshops focusing on implementing lean processes, sustainable business practices, and strategy deployment. Ben also serves as an instructor for Impact Washington programs (such as Toyota Kata, Lean 101, Lean Six Sigma and Value Stream Mapping - VSM) Ben helps companies cut costs, boost productivity, and improve employee engagement.