

CASS TANG, PMP

Cass Tang is a PMP Certified project and program manager who specializes in strategic planning and procurement, project management, Technology / IT / IS, PMO, and ITIL. Ms. Tang is an experienced manager who trains, coaches and advises leaders and team members on organization, processes and best practices. As a workshop facilitator and keynote speaker for project management, professional development and certification, career and business building, she creates and empowers executive boards to surpass expectations.

Key Qualifications

- Executive coaching: team building, presentation skills, board leadership, and strategic planning
- Training: Business Analysis, Data Analysis, Risk Management, Presentation Skills, Time Management
- Project and program management: Project Management Office Development, Portfolio Management, Enterprise Project & Change Management
- Construction prime contracting
- Engineering implementations and design

Recent Professional Experience

- Tacoma Public Schools Project Management
- US Mint
- Sound Transit Project Management Trainer
- Pierce County / Pierce Transit – Combined Communications Network (CCN)
- Calpine Senior Advisor to Infrastructure VP
- United States Gypsum Project Management Trainer
- Hytek Finishes / Esterline Project Management Trainer
- Renton School District ITIL Workshop
- Puget Sound Education Service Districts ITIL Overview
- Green River Community College Project Management Workshop Trainer
- University of Washington Extension Outreach Project Management Lecturer

Education, Professional Training, Affiliations

- ITIL Services Foundation Level ITIL Certification 2006
- Project Management Institute PMP Certification 2003 - current
- Toastmasters, CTM Certification
- Bachelor of Science Mechanical Engineering BSME Degree, University of Washington
- Texas A&M Construction Management Certificate
- Pink Elephant IT Infrastructure Library (ITIL) Certificate Prep