

Dr. Paul L. Gerhardt, PhD

Dr. Paul L. Gerhardt, PhD, is a highly sought-after keynote speaker and the core tenured management professor and chair of Pierce College's Applied Business Department. He also teaches leadership to doctoral and masters students at City University and Brandman University.

Gerhardt is a well-respected leadership expert and the author of several books including: Time Management; Diversity, Cultural Competence, and Emotional Intelligence, Diversity at Work; Diversity King; and Leadership Lucy.

Education, Professional Training, Affiliations:

- Ph.D., Business Management & Organizational Behavior, Capella University
- M.A., Organizational Leadership (with Distinction), Chapman University
- Graduate Certificate in Human Resource Management, Chapman University
- B. A., Systems Theory and Leadership Dynamics, The Evergreen State College

Experience:

Dr. Gerhardt has clients that span the United States in non-profits, US Military, and banking institutions, and corporations of all sizes and shapes. His personal mission is to help people and organizations enhance levels of employee satisfaction, maximize individual creativity, and overall effectiveness.