

Janaki Severy

Janaki Severy is a dynamic, high-energy professional with excellent communication skills. She quickly gains the trust of her clients through her sincere commitment, useful best practices and enjoyable fast paced interactive training style. Janaki brings over 25 years as a master trainer, coach and speaker and provides services for organizations in city government, high tech, biotech, health care, manufacturing, small business, and more. For seven years Janaki has worked with IPS on numerous diverse short and long-term projects. Most recently she has been delivering the IPS “Inside Out Leadership Development Program”.

Janaki leverages her strong business background with over 30 training content areas such as supervisor development, communication, leadership, teambuilding, emotional intelligence, performance management and more. She has devoted her career to understanding the complex nature of human behavior. In addition, Janaki provides organizational development and coaching across organizations and conducts national seminars on Emotional Intelligence for individuals and organizations

Education, Professional Experience, Speaking opportunities:

- Ph.D. Course Work. Transformational Learning, California Institute of Integral Studies
- M.ED. Spec Ed, Universities of Washington and Arizona
- M.ED. Career Counseling, University of Arizona
- BA Drama/Psycho Drama/Education, University of Washington
- DISC profiling
- EQ Map and training (National Speaker)
- MBTI profiling
- StrengthFinder2.0
- Trauma Informed Care Certified
- University of Washington Staff Development 7 years
- Washington Finance Officers speaker 6 years in a row
- Utah and Washington Banker Leadership Development Programs 10 years

INVISTA
PERFORMANCE SOLUTIONS